Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct answer to each of the questions.

We went camping at Ba Vi National Park, which is famous as a mountainous ecological tourism centre. It is home to hundreds of wildlife species, so we had a chance to get into a real natural habitat.

We went there on a coach. We set off early and because the road was a bit bumpy and tricky, we were tired when we arrived. After about two hours, we finally reached the campsite in Ngoc Hoa cave area. We set up our camps before exploring the park. We explored the rich nature in the Botanical Garden, trying to take deep breaths of the fresh air and enjoying the diversity of the flora there. We took photos of the places we saw. At night, we burnt wood for a campfire. We sat around the fire and sang and danced. We also had team-building activities, which were exciting and memorable. On the next day, we went trekking to Thuong Temple - a national cultural monument at Tan Vien Peak. We learnt much about the culture associated with the legend Son Tinh and Thuy Tinh from our guide.

We tried lam rice, hill chicken and milk products - the specialities of the area. We were so impressed by the trip's activities, scenery and the food of the area.

Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D to indicate the correct answer to each of the following questions.

In recent years, the exploration of space has made remarkable progress thanks to the advancements in science and technology. We cannot deny the great impacts of science and technology on space exploration. Advances in technology have allowed humans to explore and understand outer space like never before. With the invention of powerful rockets and satellites, scientists can send spacecraft beyond Earth's atmosphere so as to get crucial data for weather forecasts and global communication. For instance, missions like the Mars Rover and the Voyager probes have sent back valuable data which helps us learn more about other planets.

Technology has also improved the safety and efficiency of space missions that allow astronauts to live and work in space for longer periods. New inventions, such as 3D printers, now enable astronauts to produce tools and spare parts while in space in order to reduce the need for supplies from Earth. These breakthroughs make it possible to consider future missions to Mars and beyond. In short, science and technology are essential to expand our understanding of the universe, offer exciting possibilities for future discoveries and inspire young people to dream of exploring space.

27. What is the main idea of the passage?

- A. Advances in science and technology have greatly enhanced space exploration.
- B. The only goal of technology and science is to reach Mars for travelling.
- C. Science and technology make life on Earth easier, safer and more modern than before.
- D. Space missions are impossible without the help of astronauts and scientists.

- B. rockets
- C. Mars Rover
- D. satellites

29. The word "remarkable" in the passage is closest in meaning to "_____".

- A. difficult
- B. knowledgeable
- C. unfortunate
- D. incredible

30. The word "valuable" in the passage is opposite in meaning to "_____".

- A. limited
- B. priceless
- C. difficult
- D. unimportant

31. Which of the following is NOT MENTIONED in the passage?

- A. 3D printers are used to produce tools in space.

- B. Scientists now use powerful rockets and satellites.
- C. New technology helps astronauts stay longer in space.
- D. Space missions are funded by multiple countries.

32. What can be inferred from the passage about future space missions?

- A. They will only focus on Mars with the aim of seeking for new life on this planet someday.
- B. Future space missions will become shorter due to current technological and scientific limitations.
- C. There is little chance for scientists to discover anything new in our solar system and beyond.
- D. They may benefit from new technologies reducing the need for supplies missions from Earth.

Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D to indicate the correct answer to each of the following questions.

As climate change impacts grow each year, more young people are joining the movement for positive change. By leading discussions and spreading awareness, they motivate others to act. UNICEF partnered with Fridays For Future, founded by Greta Thunberg, to talk with youth climate activists about their experiences and actions.

María, 19, from Mexico, has seen the climate crisis up close, especially the water crisis. Droughts and rising temperatures cause forest fires, while cyclones cause floods and ruin harvests. She became a full-time activist, believing water scarcity is part of a larger ecosystem. “To preserve water, we have to preserve the forests,” she says.

Russell Raymond, 17, from Dominica, experienced Hurricane Maria in 2017, which devastated his country. It submerged streets, blew roofs off homes and schools, and forced his family to seek shelter. He uses photography to document the hurricane's impacts. “Alternate forms of energy like solar and wind can stop climate change or at least put a mark on it,” he says.

Read the diary entry of a teenager. Choose the best option (A, B, C, or D).

Dear Diary,

The conversation I had with my careers advisor this morning taught me about some typical qualities of a good employee. Firstly, to become a valuable worker, I have to be a cooperative team member. My adviser said that it was very important to get along with co-workers so that the team could reach its goals. Secondly, she advised me to improve my time management skills. It is true that companies usually expect their employees to be able to plan their time well to complete tasks and meet deadlines. Next, we talked about the ability to communicate effectively with customers and colleagues. If I have good communication skills, I can understand what people are saying and avoid misunderstandings at work. Lastly, I was not surprised when she told me that all companies now use computers and even AI to help them do their daily work. Therefore, IT skills are important for future employees. I believe these are skills I should learn and practise right away. I intend to apply them in my studies and daily activities. Also, I plan to take some courses on soft skills to enhance these skills and prepare for my future career.

27. What is the diary mainly about?

- A. courses on soft skills
- B. characteristics of good employees
- C. daily work of a careers advisor
- D. soft skills practice in everyday life

28. Which word has the CLOSEST meaning to the word goals?

- A. aims
- B. plans
- C. results
- D. successes

29. What does the word “them” mean?

- A. customers
- B. computers
- C. companies
- D. skills

30. Which can be inferred from the text?

- A. People now use AI at work and in everyday life.
- B. Cooperative workers can work well with others.
- C. Companies should provide time management training.
- D. Good communication helps develop teamwork skills.

31. What is the writer going to do?

- A. join some courses
- B. sign up for a career club
- C. meet the advisor again
- D. use AI to support her studies

32. Which of the following statements is NOT true according to the diary entry?

- A. The writer learned that being able to work well with others is a key quality of a good employee.
- B. The writer was surprised to hear that companies now use computers and AI in their work.
- C. The writer plans to improve soft skills by taking courses.
- D. Good communication skills can help avoid misunderstandings at work.
